

Streams - Amos 5:24

Sheth LaRue

Lord God,
justice came down today for your beloved George Floyd.
In a system kneeling on his neck he was at last given air to breathe - but only once more.

Lord God,
not rolling like waters, but trickling, like tears you have shed for all of your beloved children who are left vulnerable.

Lord God,
justice came down today
- and we pray for more - rolling on without hinderance like waves in the ocean, making things right and us, doing right.

Lord God,
and may righteousness follow! let open the gates and flood the lands with your waters for those most desperate for a drink
